

24th Annual Endless Summer Sailboard Classic

September 30 - October 2, 2011

"It's Worth The Party Alone"

Notice of Race

Rules - The regatta will be governed by the "rules" as defined by the ISAF Racing Rules of Sailing 2009–2012, including Appendix B – Sailboard Racing Rules, and, where applicable, the Formula 3-1 Class Rules, the Prodigy Class Rules, the Kona Class Rules, and any other class rules for one design classes, these sailing instructions, instructions posted on the official race notice board, and verbal instructions given at any official Skipper's Meeting.

Directions - Shell Point is 30 miles south of Tallahassee on State Road 367. Find your way to the intersection of US98 and State Road 365 (Spring Creek Road). Go south one mile, take the left fork onto State Road 367. Continue for about 5 miles to the beach.

The Event - The Endless Summer Sailboard Classic is sponsored by the Shell Point Sailboard Club and others. This don't-miss regatta weekend has plenty of racing and fun to offer for both the serious racer and the social regatta participant. The event includes a welcome party on Friday night with wings by Rick & Judy and sounds by DJ Bobby G. Saturday includes lunch by Café Donaldo's, Gumbo Contest, Gourmet Frankfurters by Hulon, Supper and entertainment. Continental breakfast on Saturday and Sunday served by Linda's Home Oven. A Swamidelic custom shirt by Homestead is also provided to commemorate the event. Racing format is determined by the wind conditions and may include course race, slalom, long distance and/or freestyle; with trophies going to the top three finishers in each class. Add great door prizes to the mix and you have a don't-miss regatta!
