

By Bob Graves

Shell Point Sailboard Club –Made up Club Meeting Minutes for June

Since no meeting took place, I can still speculate on what might have happened.

Commodore – Called meeting to order on-time! Just joking. No meeting ever starts on time. Kristin asked for a motion to accept the minutes as not written and Mark Voigt was the sole nay vote in a sea of ayes.

Vice Commodore – the R’n’R this year is going to KICK A$$

Purser – Maybe we have money, maybe we don’t. If you want to know, you’ll have to subpoena the records. Good luck with that.

Scribe – What more needs to be said. The man is a stable genius!

Smith Regatta – Coming up on June 20th, which, by the time you read this, has already passed.

Wind Ceremony – Ain’t gonna happen ‘til we get a vaccine. Too many in the band in the ‘at risk’ age group aka they is old! Plus, how can you do a conga line while maintaining physical distancing? Can’t be done. We tried. Just not fun.

Beach Workday – In the words of Pete Seeger “If I had a hammer, I’d hammer in the morning I’d hammer in the evening, all over the sand.....” Haven’t found the hammer yet.

Upcoming Events, maybe:

Rum ‘n’ Root Beer – August 9 (going to happen if y’all approve the budget for it)

Endless Summer Sailboard Classic – October 2

Atlanta Fall Classic – October 16

Christmas Party – December 12